seem here this senson. Train No. 44 is the title of the feature act, which, the way, is the highest salaried by the way, is the highest satured stretch that has played this house this season. It is a spectacular dramatic playlet, full of excitement and very realistic. The sketch is presented by Sylvia Bidwell, a talented dramatic actrees, and a company which are all wall chosen for their respective parts, and who give Miss Bidwell the best of support. Musical Thor, another act a this all-star bill, is causing much worable comment, and he certainly deserves all the praise he gets. Mus-ical That handles the banjo to perfec-tion, and is not far behind the best on the xylophone. Did Tim Make Good is a very near little playlet introduced by Dickens and Floyd. Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it. And which is more—you'll be a Man, my son! -Rudyard Kipling.

HURRY! e had no time to listen when A glad bird trilled its matin song! to had to have where other men Were getting onward, right or wrong,

He had no time to gladly greet.
The child he met upon his way:
He had to hurry to compete.
With others through the busy day. He had no time to linger where The wind made music in the reeds; He had to hurry on to dare For profits far beyond his seeds. Real Estate and Insurance

He hastened onward, cold and grim. And when the people turned to leave The spot where they had burled him Not one of them had time to grisve. S. E. Kiser, in the Chicago RecordHerald.
